

BATH COFFEE-HOUSE.

THIS BOARDING-HOUSE.
At Berkeley Springs, Morgan county, Va., is now open for the entertainment of visitors, and the undersigned conductors of it, have made such arrangements as will enable them to administer to the comfort of their guests in every particular. On their Table will always be found the finest mountain mutton, venison, and every luxury the country affords. Their Bar is supplied with the choicest Wines and Liquors, and well furnished with Ice. The Beds and Mattresses are furnished with linen sheeting. The House is situated adjoining the public Grove, Bath House, and Springs—Attached to it is a Ten pin Alley. There are Quits, &c., for gentlemen to recreate themselves at any exercise.

The gentleman fond of the sports of the field, can be gratified in his way, as the neighboring woods abound with Deer, wild Turkeys, Squirrels, Wood Cocks, Pheasants, and Partridges.

At the Coffee House, all persons can at any time be supplied, in addition to the regular meals, with Collations, either hot or cold, Private Suppers, or any other refreshment asked for.

A first rate Band of Music is in attendance at the Springs, and the House is furnished with a fine Piano.

It may be well to inform the public that besides the Berkeley Springs proper, so celebrated for their qualities, especially in Gouty, Rheumatic, and Scrofulous diseases—the country abounds in Chalybeate Springs, within the distance of a healthy walk. There are also many Sulphur Springs in the vicinity. Since the last season, a spring has been discovered near Bath, on the lands of Cromwell Orrick, Esq., which has been examined by persons of competent skill, and pronounced a White Sulphur of the best quality.

At the Berkeley Springs, the Invalid, the Epicure, the Gay, and Fashionable, will find their appropriate comforts.

There is not in the world a valley more sweet, than this rate in whose bottom the bright waters meet.

The undersigned have made arrangements with Mr. Coudy of Hancock, and Mr. Bushnell of Winchester, to run stage coaches regularly between those places and the Berkeley Springs, whereby access to them is facilitated. Our country roads are in a very good state of repair. The markets here are good and abundant, and the present prospect of fine crops seems to promise that the Berkeley Springs will, this season, be largely attended—in anticipation of which, the undersigned have made proportional and suitable preparations.

Dorsey's Tooth-Ache Drops.

I offer this article to the public, with the remark, that its curative powers have been sufficiently tested to satisfy me in recommending it as a general remedy for the Tooth Ache. AM I ask, is, let those who are afflicted with the Tooth Ache give it a trial.
